

FOR SMALL GROUPS OR PERSONAL STUDY

Welcome! Today, we are continuing our Gospel of John sermon series. Friend or foe, people always had questions for Jesus. In this lesson series, we will look at some of those questions in context and talk about the connections for our lives.

What questions are we dealing with, in John 1:35-51?

- 1.) _____
- 2.) _____

What did you learn about the context for these questions?

What do we mean when we say that something is “coded into human nature?”

What connections can we make for our lives?

1. We see the _____ for making disciples.

What did you learn here from John the Baptist, Andrew, and Philip?

2. We see the _____ for making disciples.

What confessions were made by John the Baptist, Andrew, Philip, and Nathanael?

What do these confessions tell us? What should we expect when we share simple (yet deep) confessions coupled together with “come and see” invitations?

3. We see the _____ for making disciples.

Work back through the conversation that Jesus had with Nathanael. How did it end in v50-51?

Troubling News...

- _____% of all Churches in America (this past year) declined in size.
- _____% of Churches experienced no growth
- _____% experienced between 1% and 5% growth

Good News...

- _____
- _____

Challenge...

- _____
- _____